SCHOOL PROFILE

Founded in 1867, Lyndon Institute is a historic co-educational boarding school for students in grades 9 - 12 offering a college preparatory program as well as courses in the arts, business, English as a second language, and computer applications and technology. Lyndon Institute's 150-acre campus is centered on the historic village green of Lyndon Center in northeastern Vermont.

FACILITIES

The campus' academic and sport facilities include 27 buildings with networked classrooms, 6 science labs, 5 computer labs, a multimedia center/library, 2 gymnasiums, 2 football fields, 2 soccer fields, a field hockey field, a baseball field, a softball field, and a track and field facility. There is also a community hockey rink next to school.

SPORTS AND ARTS

Lyndon has impressive sports teams. Indoor Track, Boys Basketball, Girls Slopestyle Snowboarding, Boys GS Alpine Skiing, and Girls softball are all 2015-16 State Champions. Lyndon Institute reflects its commitment to the arts by requiring all students to take at least one credit in the fine arts during their high school career. Students have many options, including AP level art classes, painting, acting, introduction and techniques in dance, and chorus.

DORMITORIES AND STUDENT LIFE

The school has six recently renovated dormitories, three large and three smaller cottage style dormitories that can accommodate up to 100 boarding students total. Each dormitory's lounge area is equipped with a television, kitchen, and computers. Most dormitory rooms are single rooms.
