SCHOOL PROFILE

Indian River Charter High School (IRCHS) is an "A" Rated, US public charter high school with a student population of 670. Located on the "Treasure Coast" of the Atlantic shore in Florida, the charter school receives public funding under its charter terms with special emphasis on visual and performing arts. The school's International Exchange Program gives international students the chance to experience American life in complete immersion with host families.

FACILITIES

The IRCHS campus has a number of great facilities including their state of the art facilities, the Black Box Theater and performance venue "The Dome."

SPORTS AND ARTS

The school has an outstanding Golf Program which focuses on developing skills, etiquette, golf history and the golf industry. IRCHS also provides a wonderful opportunity for young adults to excel in the arts. Programs offered in the art and performance areas include dance, drama, music-vocal, music-instrumental, visual arts, and creative writing.

COMMUNITY INFORMATION

An elegant city located along Florida's Atlantic Coast, Vero Beach is a haven for golf, water sports and fishing. Peaceful beaches, museums, nature tours and a range of hotels make Vero Beach a terrific vacation destination and an important part of the region known as the Treasure Coast. The city also offers a fine selection of shops – both downtown and in large shopping malls – and delectable cuisine.
