Úvod

About ILSC Language Schools

ILSC Language Schools has been offering language training programs to International students from more than 100 countries since 1991, and is the largest and longest running of ILSC Education Group’s 5 divisions, which also include Colleges, Teacher Training, Language Training for Business, and Continuing Education.

Since opening its first school in Vancouver, BC, Canada in 1991, ILSC has become a world leader in language training, and has grown to include 7 incredible locations around the world, in Vancouver, Toronto and Montréal, Canada; New Delhi, India; and Brisbane, Melbourne and Sydney, Australia.

In 2013 and 2014, ILSC was voted by industry partners as Study Travel Magazine's Star Chain School, an important recognition of quality in the language education industry.

We continue to work hard to maintain our high standards of academic excellence and service, in order to meet our mission:

To keep developing ILSC as one of the finest schools for language and career education where people have excellent and transformative learning and living experiences.
