College of Business

The Westcliff College of Business offers undergraduate and graduate degrees in Business Administration. The BBA, MBA and DBA degrees are meant for working professionals who want to further their careers in business, whether they are pursuing jobs in management, leadership, and consulting or wish to become business entrepreneurs themselves.The cornerstone of a Westcliff University business degree is the development of analytical reasoning skills that are immediately applicable to the real world.

Our students graduate with the ability to critically assess a company and its challenges, and to generate creative solutions that are grounded in business principles.

- Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA)

Our Westcliff Business Degree (Bachelor of Business – BBA) program, whether taught via online or hybrid platform, leads undergraduate students onto the next step in their business careers. At Westcliff University, BBA students become knowledgeable about a wide variety of disciplines, including finance, accounting, marketing, operations, sales, and information technology.

Equally important, we teach business from a global perspective. Our curriculum focuses on companies based both in the U.S. and abroad.

Students also learn how to present their ideas professionally so that hiring managers really see what they have to offer. Learning how to think critically, analyze data, and problem solve are integral components to an Westcliff Business Degree (Bachelor of Business BBA) degree.

- Masters of Business Administration (MBA)

The Westcliff MBA program prepares you for a career in management or entrepreneurship. At Westcliff University you will

1. Work in diverse teams, make presentations, and lead case study analyses

2. Build a foundation in management principles
3. Develop your ability to think critically and problem solve creatively
4. Take advantage of workshops and guest speaker presentations, offered throughout the year on both online and hybrid programs.
5. Network with students and faculty working in a wide range of industries
6. Equally important, you will learn from professors who are senior managers or business owners.

- Doctor of Business Administration (DBA)

The Doctor of Business Administration (DBA) is designed for candidates who, having already completed a Masters program, are looking to further develop their practical and theoretical knowledge of the principles that govern global business. Students have the opportunity to explore challenges facing business today, including corporate social responsibility, globalization, and managing change. In keeping with our commitment to working adult professionals, we have one of the few doctoral programs in Southern California that allows students to complete their doctoral studies in a hybrid or online format. The performance outcomes which are required for the completion of the program include: class participation, response to discussion questions, writing research papers, group assignments, case study analyses, quizzes, mid-term and final examinations (Comprehensive Learning Assessments), and a Doctoral Final Project/ Dissertation.

College of Education

- Bachelor of Arts in Education (BAEd)

- Master of Arts in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (MA TESOL)

Ohlasy studentů

College of Business

“The expertise of the Professor, the perfect materials we are using, the perfect set up of getting education- not requiring studnt to come to school as often as needed but have trusted the student that we are faithfully studying and giving our best to educate ourselves by working on the assignments given to us. Indeed the questions raised make me gauge myself if I am learning or still lost. Thank God I am happy because each day, I can tell myself, Faith, you are becoming better and better, soon when you get a job, you will be one of the most ideal and successful leader in the world you are living in”

-Faith Orillaza, MBA student

BUS 500 – Summer 2016

“Our professor is friendly and always supports our study.”

– Uyen thi Diem, MBA student

BUS 500 – Summer 2016

“I have enjoyed this subject, I guess because it was a good timing for me as I am starting my business. I was able to write a business plan under the supervision and consultation of one of the best educator and a role model enterprenuer that I have learned a lot from."

– Nadia Hassen, MBA student

BUS 557 – Spring 2016

College of Education

"It enables me as a teacher to become a better knowledgeable teacher as it exposes me to vital information and teaches me ways to deeply connect, understand my students needs [both grammatical knowledge and ability] in my classroom teaching and better my students learning."

-Chinyere Ikpoh,MA TESOL student

TSL 520 – Spring 2016

"The best things is the online discussion. I improved my critical thinking, reading speed, typing as well as composing essays. Also, I learned a lot of precious knowledge and experience from my instructor and classmates. Finally, the GAP really became a friendly place for us to share ideas and fasten friendships."

-Anh Nguyen Hoai, TESOL Certificate

"This course make students work under pressure so when they graduate and work as a teacher. They can work well and do not feel stressed or want to quit the job. In addition, instructors in this course is very professional that convey various knowledge to students."
